ROLAPP-BALLIF.

The marriage and reception of Miss May Belle Rolapp and Serge F. Ballif, Jr., was among the happiest and prettiest of the season's social events. The bride and groom are well known and popular and a host of friends offered congratulations and best wishes. Miss Rolapp is the daughter of Judge and Mrs. Henry H. Rolapp, and Mr. Ballif the son of Mr. and Mrs. Serge F. Ballif, Sr. of Logan, well known and prominent families of Ogden and Logan.

President Joseph F. Smith united them in marriage in the Salt Lake temple by the beautiful marriage ceremony of the Mormon church, Wednesday at high noon and the wedding breakfast was given immediately after at the Hotel Utah. The bride and groom were accompanied by their parents, the party returning later to Ogden.

From 8 to 11 o'clock Wednesday evening a reception to 400 Ogden, Salt Lake and Logan friends and relatives of the bride and groom was held at the Rolapp home on Madison avenue. The spacious rooms were given added attraction by an artistic placing of pink and white roses and peonies with ferns, smilax, potted plants and palms, making an effective background. The broad porches and grounds were beautifully lighted and decorated making a charming scene.

In the receiving line with Judge and Mrs. Rolapp and Mr. and Mrs. Serge F. Ballif, Sr. were Mr. and Mrs. Franklin H. Rolapp and Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Rolapp and in a bower of flowers and dainty green foliage in the parlor the bride and groom, accompanied by the bridesmaid, Miss Daisy Rolapp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Rolapp, cousin of the bride, and best man, Franklin H. Rolapp, received the warm congratulations of their friends. The bride made a charming picture in a beautiful but simply designed gown of white charmeuse and real duchess lace with pearls and orange blossoms, a dainty cap of real lace fastened with orange blossoms and carrying a bouquet of bride's roses with shower of lilies of the valley. The bridesmaid wore pink chiffon over pink charmeuse and carried pink Queen Beatrix roses with shower of pink sweet peas and lilies of the valley.

A handsome pale blue charmeuse trimmed with cream and gold lace and dainty ornaments with platinum lavalliere with diamond pendant was worn by Mrs. H. S. Rolapp and a white and pink embroidered overdress over pink charmeuse was the becoming creation worn by Mrs. E. S. Rolapp. Mrs. Franklin H. Rolapp was daintily gowned in pale pink charmeuse with cream and gold lace and pink chiffon roses and delicate pink and green tulle bows to match the dress adorned her hair.

Misses Ruth Douglas, Oertel Rich, Zenora Ballif, Juanita Ballantyne and Gertrude Weatherby, who assisted in serving were each in dainty lingerie gowns as were also the little Misses Evelyn and Rachel Ballif and Mary Campbell who gave to each guest on departing a small monogrammed box of wedding cake.

The color scheme, pink and white, was carried out throughout the house and grounds. American Beauty, Richmond and White Killarney roses with Windsor carnations made a lovely picture. At the rear of the house the handsome green lawn with its roses, shrubs and trees was transformed into a Japanese tea garden. Japanese lanterns and pink and white electric lights shed a pretty glow over all and parlands of roses and smilax added to the beauty of the scene. Here rugs were spread and tables arranged for the serving of refreshments to the large company while an orchestra under the direction of Squire Coop rendered choice selections from the rear balcony throughout the evening. Over the large table where the bridal party was served a large Japanese umbrella was spread, the handsome lace table cover, over pink satin, was graced by a beautiful basket of Cecil Brunner roses and lilies of the valley, the tall handle tied with pink tulle. On each of the other perfectly laid tables, a vase of pink roses and Windsor carnations formed the centerpiece and clusters of cherries hung temptingly low from the branches of the young cherry trees in a prettily conceived way of serving this fruit. Punch was served on tables nicely arranged in a corner near the entrance to the garden. The outdoor scene was an exceedingly beautiful one.

The gifts were many and beautiful. Handsome silver and cut glass, choice and rare pieces, embroidered table linen, beautiful tapestries and many useful as well as ornamental articles were the offering of a long list of warm friends of this popular young couple. Letters and messages expressing best wishes and hearty congratulations from absent friends were among the prized remembrances to this popular young couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Ballif left for a short honeymoon, keeping their destination a secret, and will be at their pretty new home on Twenty-seventh street after June 15.

CHILDREN'S AID SOCIETY.

The regular meeting of the Children's Aid society, which is held monthly, met yesterday with Mrs. Frank Peterson at her home, 606 Twenty-third street. There were present by invitation members of some of the leading clubs who are interested along this line of work.

After the business of the meeting was disposed of, Dr. Gowan, head of the State Industrial school, addressed those present on the subject of sociology, of employing women workers trained and taught in schools established for that purpose. A woman's business it is to get close to the family and learn why the conditions exist that lead to suffering and then try to show and teach the remedy. Dr. Gowan's address was listened to with deep interest and the subject of a trained sociology worker met with warm approval.

A musical program, both vocal and instrumental, added to the enjoyment of the afternoon. Delicious refreshments were offered by the hostess and a pleasant afternoon profitably and pleasantly spent.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Thursday evening at the home of her son, Mr. G. W. Bruerton, 21 North Washington avenue, Mrs. Ann Bruerton celebrated her 70th birthday amongst her friends and relatives where she received congratulations and many nice presents from all. Games were played and a fine musical program was rendered after which dainty refreshments were served. Those present were: Mesdames Ann Bruerton, W. Lucas, S. Harrop, S. Calahan, G. W. Bruerton, A. E. Bruerton; the Misses Corliss, M. Corliss, H. Bruerton, D. Hilton, Calahan E. Calahan, P. Barker, Phyllis and Winnie Bruerton; Messrs. S. Calahan, C. H. Hilton, S. Harrop, A. E. Bruerton, G. W. Bruerton, Raymond and Joyce Harrop, Algy and Teddy Bruerton.

MRS. MAY BELLE ROLAPP BALLIF.

OLD FOLKS' DAY.

Elaborate preparations are being made for the annual Old Folks' Day. The outing will be held at Lagodon and the happiest day of all the year will be enjoyed by the old people who are able to attend.

No detail that would add to the comfort or pleasure of all the old people will be overlooked by the committees in charge and earnest endeavor is being made to learn the names of and address of every old person in this section, regardless of creed or nationality. All are given a hearty welcome and a host of willing workers are to be on hand on Old Folks' day to care for every individual in the most careful manner.

Utmost endeavor to excel in the manner in which they care for the old and are justly proud of their success in this respect during the entire year as well as on the annual day.

HUNT PARTY.

To search in all sorts of strange places for the various articles of make up the supper were the experience of 20 young people who were among those invited to a hunt party given last evening by Miss Sadie Eccles.

Upon arriving at the home of Mrs. Nettie Eccles, 1013 Twenty-sixth street, couples were selected and each couple was given a card telling where some article could be found. It was the duty of each couple to go to the address and bring back whatever was found there. Upon the first package were instructions telling the hunters where other articles could be found. Silver spoons were found at the city jail. The Union depot hid some knives and forks. In one of the local undertaking parlors was located a glass of jam.

When all the articles had been found, the party met again at the home of the hostess and the supper was served.

Among those in the party were: Misses Sadie Eccles, Marie Eccles, Vivian Eccles, Violet Frank, Josephine Wade, Marie Slade, May Workman, Bertha Workman, Florabelle Workman, Mabel Chugg, and Mrs. Floyd Knight, Joseph Shurtliff, Joseph Smith, Verne Wade, Clarence Anderson, Byron Wotherpoon, Lorenzo Wilkinson, Victor Critchlow, Roland Perry, and Leonard Anderson.

CHILD CULTURE CLUB.

The annual field day of the Child Culture club will be held Tuesday afternoon, June 10, at the Hermitage. Members are requested to take the canyon car leaving Washington and 25th street at 2 o'clock on that afternoon. Lunch will be served at 4 o'clock at the Hermitage.

LINEN SHOWER.

A linen shower was given Thursday evening in honor of Miss Lucy Knight at the home of her sister, Mrs. Ezra Richardson, Twenty-sixth street and Barlow avenue, the affair being one of the social events preceding Miss Knight's marriage to Mr. Hazel Ipsom on Wednesday, June 11.

The bride-to-be received many beautiful pieces of linen from the guests, who enjoyed the social gathering of several hours duration.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Richardson, Miss Knight, and Miss Della Richardson. In the party were Mesdames Ezra and P. C. Richardson; Bert Cowan, Moeck, George D. Folkman, Edward Folkman, Douglas, William Gampton, Chrystabel Leavitt and Ruby Hunter; Misses Della and Lucy Knight Lona and Esther Ipsom, Hazel Cowan, Minnie Roylance, Vera Douglas, Blanch Leavitt, Iretta Hunter and Goddard Messrs. Lee Richardson, Ezra Richardson, Hazel Ipsom and Bert Cowan.

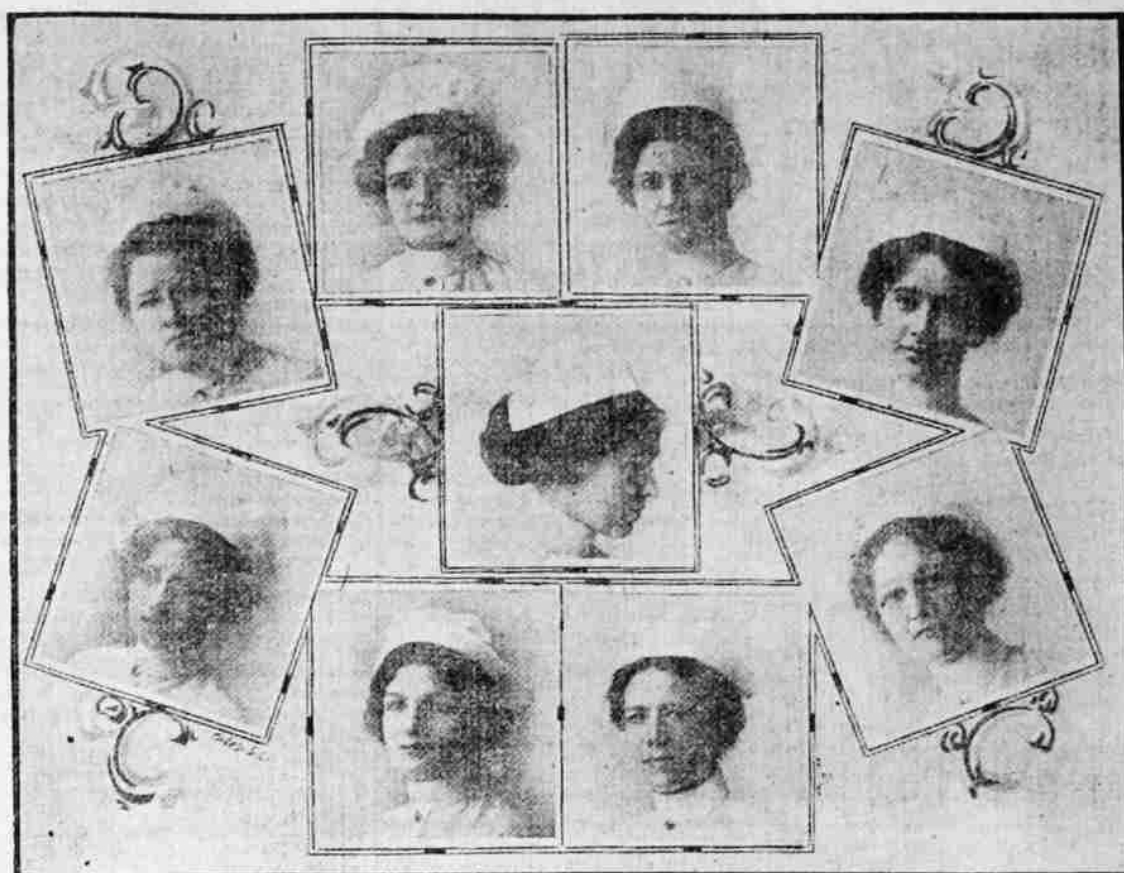

MARTHA SOCIETY.

The Martha society will meet Tuesday with Mrs. J. H. Spargo at the Peery apartments.

MRS. H. A. SEIP ENTERTAINS.

The W. C. T. U. members are greatly indebted to Mrs. Seip for use of her beautiful home, for Flower Mission day, yesterday. It seems that each year the flowers are more beautiful, and it is a pleasure to all who help, to bring cheer to the sick, in this way. Mrs. Putnam who shared her flowers so generously with us last year, remembered us handsomely again this year, and the ladies are deeply grateful, and to all who sent flowers and helped, we wish to thank. There were 365 bouquets sent to the sick and shut in. A short, but interesting program was given. We are indeed sorry to part with our

BOY SCOUTS ON A TRIP TO SALT LAKE

At 8 o'clock this morning 60 Boy Scouts of the Mutual Improvement Association of the Ogden Stake departed over the Bamberger road for Salt Lake where they will spend the day and part of tomorrow, returning Sunday afternoon.

The boys will camp at Wandamere, where they will be given experience in tent life. The drill this afternoon and evening will consist of pitching tents, cooking and regular campfire exercises.

The Scouts are under the direction of Captain W. S. Wright who states that an excellent program for the outing has been arranged.

Today the boys will be privileged to visit the gymnasium of Salt Lake and other places that will be attractive to them, after which they will go to camp and remain for the night.

The boys range in age from 12 to 20, nearly all of the wards of the stake being represented. Ogden stake embraces North Ogden, Pleasant View, Huntsville, Eden, Liberty and Middleton and the Fourth, Sixth, Seventh and Eighth wards of Ogden.

Each of the wards has a Boy Scout organization, all of which will contribute to the expense fund for the trip, the fund to be augmented by contributions from individuals. Each boy who is able to pay his own expenses will do so, but those who can not are permitted to go and the expense fund of the organizations is used to pay his way.

Food equipment is furnished in Salt Lake, but each of the lads carries his quilt.

After some men have been handed a lemon they act as if they were trying to corner the vinegar market.
